Weather Forecast.

For North Carolina—Fair Sunday and Monday, warmer Sunday; light variable winds, mostly North.

Perhaps President Roosevelt is glad the landslide was scheduled for last year instead of this year.

Perhaps Ohio has some Democrat who might go to grooming for the Presidential race three years from now.

The political bosses are in a position to really wonder why the people never flunked on them before last Tuesday.

We have seen no announcement yet as to the name of the gentleman who is to umpire the forthcoming game between President Roosevelt and the Republican Senate.

"There are about 4,000 women's clubs in the United States," says a woman's magazine. That's hardly enough clubs to go around but the women can knock a man out any time without a club.

The people in New York seem to be surprised that a Prince is just like other men, because of "the unassuming cordialty with which Admiral Prince Louis receives his visitors of high and low degree." Why, sure. Princes are expected to show their "raising."

The press of Philadelphia—the press of the United States—rejoices that Philadelphia was redeemed from the most monstrous gang of political freebooters that ever got control of a city. The strangest part of it is how the people let such a covey of harpies roost in public places so long.

The inland waterway project may be on the eve of taking some sort of definite shape. To-morrow the army engineers will be in Norfolk to take the preliminary steps to resurvey the route of the inside waterway from Norfolk to Beaufort Inlet in this State. North Carolina is tremendously interested in this project.

Their Little Son Dead.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sykes, of Delgado, will sympathize with them deeply in the loss of their little son, Charles Taze Russell, aged five years and 11 months, whose death occurred at the family residence between 5 and 6 o'clock yesterday morning. The funeral will be conducted at 10:30 A. M. to-day from the residence and the remains will be laid to rest in Bellevue cemetery.

A fit for every foot at Gaylord's stores. Shoes for all reduced.

AT THE ACADEMY THIS WEEK

Lewis Morrison in Faust—"When We Were Twenty-One" and Pauline Hall Opera Company.

Lewis Morrison himself will positively appear at the Academy tomorrow night, in the part of Mephisto supported by a strong company dawn from the best of the "legitimate" school. Lewis Morrison has appeared in this part over five thousand times during the past twenty seasons and his performance is recognized by the best critics to be a flawless piece of acting which has gained him international fame. The beauty of the new scenery, the startling electrical effects and the newly written choral and instrumental music will be welcome features, but the opportunity to witness Lewis Morrison's impersonation of Satan will prove the magnet which will draw strongest in the new production of "Faust."

Nat Goodwin's Great Success.—At the Academy of Music next Welnesday, matinee and night. Henry V. Esmond's master-piece "When We Were Twenty-One" is to be presented by one of the strongest casts ever seen in this piece. In all Mr. Goodwin's career he has never attempted anything which has met with such renowned success as "When We Were Twenty-One." In looking over all the criticisms of Mr. Goodwin's recent productions, in nearly every instance, regret has been expressed that his new plays were not to be compared with "When We Were Twenty-One." Now that revivals of great plays seem to be the thing, surely no better production could be offered than this ever popular comedy. The play is to be presented in the most lavish style and with the exceptionally good cast should indeed prove the most notable dramatic offering of the present season.

Pauline Hall Opera Company.—Although the date of Pauline Hall Opera Company in "Dorcas" at the Academy next Saturday is still somewhat distant, the coming of the great prima donna is already creating more than passing comment among music lovers and admirers of comic opera in its highest forms. "Dorcas" is by Harry and Edward Paulton, authors of "Erminie," in which Miss Hall became the idol of New York theatre-goers when the opera had its long and memorable run at the Casino. Mr. J. Robertson Smiley, business manager of the company, arrived in the city yesterday to get everything in readiness for the coming of the attraction.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Mary Alice Johnson, of Brooks' alley, was sent out to the hospital last night for the treatment of severe scalp wounds she had received on Nixon street earlier in the evening. The wounds are not dangerous.

—The crate factory of the Inlependent M'f'g Co., at Castle Haynes, has begun operation and is now running on full time. Elsewhere in to-day's Star the management advertises for 100 crate workers of every kind.

—Announcement is made of the forthcoming marriage this evening of Mrs. Laura Van Patten and Mr. E. A. Speight, both of this city. The marriage will be solemnized at the home of the bride on North Fourth street.

—Rev. J. A. McKaughan, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist church, will address the men's meeting at the Boys' Brigade armory at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Mrs. Fairchild and Miss Smith will sing. Mr. Yopp, pianist. All men invited.

—A movement is on foot for another reunion of Fort Fisher veterans on the scene of the memorable engagement at the month of the Cape Fear river. Veterans of the conflict, North and South, are being interested in the movement which has every prospect of success.

—Constable Savage last night landed in the county jail Hattie Jones, colored. Hattie had stabbed Georgianna Suggs, another colored woman, in the jaw during a fight which had waxed warm on Brunswick, between Fifth and Sixth streets, earlier in the night. The woman will be given trial by Justice Furlong at 4 P. M. Monday.

HENRY SCOTT TO DIE

Verdict of Guilty Returned and Sentence Pronounced In Federal Court

TO HANG ON JANUARY 26th

Closing Incident of Notable Trials—Place of Execution Continues Live Topic of Discussion—Condemned Men Express Themselves.

After what seemed for nearly 48 hours a hopeless division upon the question of guilty carrying with it the death penalty or guilty without capital punishment, the only alternative provided in the statute in such cases, the jury in the case of Henry Scott, charged with mutiny and murder upon the high seas, at 1:25 o'clock yesterday afternoon returned a verdict of guilty in the first degree and the defendant must die, according to sentence subsequently passed by Judge Purnell, on Friday, January 26th, the same date fixed for the legal execution of Adams and Sawyer, his shipmates, who were previously convicted this week.

The verdict had been reached half or three-quarters of an hour before, but some time was taken up in getting the prisoner, his counsel and court officials into the court room as is required before the formal return. The jury filed into the room, weary-looking and with every appearance of having felt the intense strain under which they had labored for two nights and the best portion of two days. Mr. W. T. Mercer, acting as foreman of the jury, stood and in reply to the formal inquiry by the clerk, replied "Guilty." Then the jury was polled and each of the twelve men for himself, answered the same. The District Attorney then prayed the judgment of the court and Mr. Bellamy, counsel for the defence, with a consciousness of duty well performed, arose and said that he knew no reason why judgment should not be pronounced; that his client had in all respects a fair and impartial trial and he had made no exceptions.

When asked if he had anything to say why judgment should not be passed upon him, Scott, nervous, his eyes dancing everywhere here and there over the court room, said he was not guilty; that he had had a fair trial, but the public had not been fair to him.

Judge Purnell prefaced the sentence with a beautiful expression of sentiment in regard to the report that Scott had denied the existence of a God. The negro in a subdued voice answered in the negative while His Honor, continuing, commended the prisoner to the Great Judge and admonished him to look to that God for forgiveness. The Judge then reviewed the crime, spoke of the heinousness of it and Scott was visibly affected. He protested his innocence of the killing of any of the crew except Coakley and as he went on and on, his voice rose almost to a shout and as he concluded he brought down his hand on the railing with a slap that was heard all over the court room. It appeared to be half in anger, half in desperation—almost hysterical. The sentence was pronounced in a firm, calm manner by Judge Purnell and was exactly the same as that pronounced upon Adams and Sawyer earlier in the week.

In addressing Scott, Judge Purnell paid a very high tribute to Mr. Bellamy, his counsel, saying the defence had been with unusual ability; in fact, more ability than is usually displayed in capital cases, whether counsel is employed by the defendant or appointed by the Court.

Details of the Hanging.

Court did not adjourn for the term when the business was completed yesterday afternoon, Judge Purnell before leaving the bench, having said that owing to the importance of the cases just completed and for reasons satisfactory to the court, only a recess would be taken. It is understood that this action was in order that if any details in connection with the hanging should arise, it would not be too late to arrange the same. Just where the hanging will take place has not yet been decided that matter being left entirely in the hands of Marshal Dockery. The logical place for the execution is regarded as the county jail yard, but whether consent of the county authorities for the hanging to take place there can be obtained is not yet known as the Marshal has made no application for the privilege. The point is made that there would be such a clamor to see the execution that hundreds of dollars worth of county property would be destroyed in the crush. It is believed that the Federal authorities in this court are awaiting further advices from the Attorney General of the United States before arranging these details.

As to the Scott Jury.

Before leaving the jury room yesterday the 12 men who labored so faithfully to arrive at a proper verdict as to the guilt and punishment of the prisoner, entered into a solemn compact not to divulge to anyone their respective standing as to the verdict and so far as this paper knows not one of the men has violated that pledge. There were all sorts of rumors on the streets yesterday, and some of them apparently were pretty well authenticated, but in justice to the persons whose names were mentioned, the Star refrains from publishing any of these reports. It was made no secret, though, that at first the jury stood 8 to 4 for conviction in the first degree and that on Friday there was a change to 7 to 5 for hanging. Yesterday morning three of the five came over for a verdict with no qualification and between 12 and 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the two gave way and made the verdict possible. Friday night the jury by a ballot of 7 to 5 agreed to remain in the court room all night and to take a ballot every hour until something was decided upon. This balloting was kept up every hour during the night until 4 A. M., many of the jurors being aroused from sleep to deposit a slip in the hat passed around, but there were no results and all hands went to sleep until yesterday morning. The argument in the jury room was at times heated and the agreement yesterday afternoon was really a surprise to many of the jurors themselves.

Prisoners in the Jail.

Now that all three of the men have been condemned to die, extra precautions are being taken to safe guard them in the county jail. The cell corridors are kept lighted as usual all night with electric lights and Jailor Capps exercises a constant, personal supervision over the men. They are allowed to see or talk to no one except upon a written permit from the sheriff and everything given them to eat or drink is first carefully examined. They are allowed to receive nothing by mail until it has passed through the jailor's hands.

When seen in prison after the death sentence had been passed upon him, Scott said yesterday he was indeed grateful for the great defence that Mr. Bellamy made for him, but his talk indicated that he was not satisfied with the trial and the verdict. Adams and Sawyer have been given a cell further removed from Scott and they have absolutely nothing to say to him. Sawyer sent for one of the colored pastors in town to see him yesterday. He came to the jail but went away to get permission from the Sheriff to see the prisoners and never returned. Adams and Sawyer have no criticism to offer, but still protest their innocence and lay the blame to Scott.

His Record Before.

An old sailing master, whose name the District Attorney did not remember, approached that official yesterday and said that he had just come into port and entered the court room for the first time yesterday. He said he recognized Scott as a negro sailor once on his ship, when some negro sailors were made way with in a manner that was never explained. If Scott is the same man, the captain said he was a desperate negro and once had threatened the life of his son aboard a ship.

CLEARING HOUSE ORGANIZED.

Wilmington Banks Take Progressive Step—The Officers Elected.

The banks of the city took a progressive step yesterday in the organization of a Clearing House Association, the objects of which are the same as have made them necessary to the banking interests in all the large financial centres of the country. The meeting of local bankers was held in the offices of Messrs. Hugh MacRae & Company, and the organization was perfected by the election of the following officers:

President—William Calder.
Vice President—H. C. McQueen.
Sec. and Treas.—J. V. Grainger.
Governing Board—C. N. Evans, C E. Taylor, Jr., Milton Calder and J. W. Yates.

THE BAZAAR CLOSED.

Declared a Success Both Artistically and Financially—Elevator.

The Masonic Bazaar closed yesterday afternoon. It was pronounced an artistic success by all who attended and a financial success by those in charge of the management. The ladies responded most nobly to the requests for assistance by the Executive Committee and without their co-operation and support, it would have been nothing like the success it was. Elsewhere in to-day's Star, the Masonic Temple Corporation returns its sincere thanks to the ladies for their kindly assistance. The proceeds of the Bazaar will be used in defraying the expenses of the installation of an elevator in the building, which is much needed.

New Trash Ordinance.

The ordinance recently adopted by the Board of Aldermen providing a better system for the removal of trash, etc., in the street cleaning department of the city, is published officially as an advertisement elsewhere in to-day's paper. The success of the new system depends largely upon the co-operation of the public and every housekeeper and landlord should read the ordinance and suit their actions accordingly. There are, too, certain penalties attached to violation of the law which most people would do well to avoid.

Mr. George A. Letford Here.

Mr. George A. Letford, representing H. E. Bucklen & Co., of Chicago, and popularly known in this city and all over his extensive territory in the South as the "drummer medium," arrived in the city last night and will spend several days here. Mr. Letford has given a number of readings in Wilmington and the remarkable powers possessed by him as a spiritualist, have been the wonder of many groups of his friends during his periodical visits to this city.

Royal Arcanum Reinstated.

A telegram received yesterday afternoon by Dr. S. Mendelsohn, from Supreme Regent Howard C. Wiggins, of the Royal Arcanum, from Rome, N. Y., notifies the members of Cornelius Harnett Council, Royal Arcanum, of this city, that the council has been reinstated as heretofore. The circumstances of the suspension of the Council are well remembered by readers of this paper.

Fire Yesterday Morning.

Heat from a stove in a bed-room at the residence of Dr. S. Mendelsohn, No. 511 Orange street, at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, caused a blaze which brought the Department out, in response to an alarm from box 48, and which damaged the house furnishings to the extent of about $150 and the building about $200. The loss is fully covered by insurance with the agency of Col. Walker Taylor.

BETTER FACILITIES

Union Depot Arrangement Between Seaboard and Coast Line Again Being Urged

A PROBABILITY OF SUCCESS

Understood That Renewed Efforts by Chamber of Commerce Is About to Accomplish Desired Result Front Street Station.

It may be announced with a reasonable degree of certainty that arrangements are about concluded by which union depot facilities will be provided the Wilmington public by the Atlantic Coast Line and the Seaboard Air Line in this city. In other words, it has about been arranged so that the Seaboard Air Line passenger trains will run into and depart from the Front street station of the Atlantic Coast Line instead of the Seaboard depot, further removed from the business section of the city and very inconvenient to reach from any point of travel in Wilmington.

It will be remembered that some time ago it was one of the demands of the Chamber of Commerce when the question of better service on the S. A. L. was up before that body, that union depot facilities with the Coast Line be provided, but subsequently the more important demands were granted and the matter of the union depot facilities was deferred.

Some weeks ago, it is learned from railroad sources, the Chamber of Commerce Executive Committee renewed the demands in this respect and appointed a committee composed of Mr. Martin S. Willard, chairman; Mr. L. B. Rogers and Mr. H. W. Malloy, to press the question with the railroad people. It is learned that the Atlantic Coast Line upon a very reasonable basis, has consented for the Seaboard to use its property to the extent needed for the union depot facilities and that the S. A. L. officials have received the proposition favorably. It is expected that a definite announcement will be made in a week or ten days.

Both roads now use the same tracks over Hilton bridge and a part of the way around Hilton park, so that to extend this co-operation on into the city would be a very small matter. The change would be highly pleasing to the travelling public and would greatly facilitate the handling of mail and express by the Seaboard. It is understood that the Chamber of Commerce committee is industriously at work upon the matter and that no compromise will be accepted.

Mr. Kellum to Dunn, N. C.

The Dunn Weekly Guide says: "Mr. Woodus Kellum, a prominent attorney of Wilmington, arrived in the city yesterday and has formed a co-partnership, for the practice of law in Harnett and adjoining counties, with Hon. H. L. Godwin, under the name and style of Godwin & Kellum. Mr. Kellum was a very prominent member of the Wilmington bar and comes highly endorsed by the leading lawyers of New Hanover county. The wonderful progress along industrial lines made by Harnett county for the past few years has attracted the attention of good citizens all over the State, and we desire to congratulate him on the wise step he has taken. As to the reputation enjoyed by Mr. Godwin, the senior member of this new firm, in this section of the State, needs no words of commendation from us. He is widely and favorably known in quite a large section and is recognized among the strongest members of our bar."

Notice for Bible Readers.

Are you really interested in God's word? Would you truly like to know his plan? Next Sunday two services will be held in this city at old Odd Fellows' Hall, opposite City Hall, at 3:00 P. M. and 7:30 P. M. under the auspices of the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society, a society devoting its time to the study and dissemination of God's truth. These services will be addressed by Pilgrim Walter H. Bundy, of Boston, Mass., one of its travelling representatives. Subjects: "The World's Hope" and "The Church's Hope"—subjects of vital importance and interest to thinking Christians. It will be remembered that it is not the purpose of these services to build up another sect or denomination, but to incite to greater zeal and faithfulness those who have named the name of Christ, as well as pointing to the truth-hungry souls to the living waters of God's word. As usual it is expected that these services will be well attended by many of the religiously inclined and thinking class. All are welcome. No collection. Seats free. **

PYTHIAN NIGHT OBSERVANCE

Four Wilmington Lodges Have Arranged for Elaborate Celebration of Anniversary Event.

All arrangements have been made for an elaborate and fitting joint observance of "Pythian Night" by the four enthusiastic K. of P. lodges of Wilmington on Tuesday evening of this week. The celebration will be in Castle Hall, on the third floor of the Murchison National Bank building, and the event will be especially significant in this city because it not only marks the establishment of the order in the State but in Wilmington also, being the 35th anniversary of the founding of Stonewall Lodge No. 1, of this city.

As previously noted Whitehead Kluttz, Esq., a leading young attorney of Salisbury, N. C., and a Pythian who stands high in the councils of the order, will be the speaker and a most interesting and eloquent address is assured. He will be introduced by State Deputy Grand Chancellor J. D. Nutt. Aside from the address by Mr. Kluttz, Capt. T. D. Meares, of this city, Supreme Master of Exchequer of the order in the United States, will give an interesting historical sketch of Stonewall Lodge.

Deputy Grand Chancellor J. D. Nutt and Past Chancellor W. O. Page, composing the music committee, have arranged for Hollowbush's Academy Orchestra to play and that feature of the exercises will be much enjoyed. The programme will be as follows:

Selection—"Woodland" .....Luders
Reverie—"Falling Star" ...Richmond
Morcean—"The Chirpers" .....
.....Chas. Frank
Valse Lento—"La France"...B. Hartz
Bright Eyes Good Bye (new).....
.....Van Alstyne

Mr. Kluttz will arrive in the city Tuesday afternoon and will be entertained royally by the Wilmington Knights. Wednesday a trolley party to the beach and an oyster roast at Lumina is included in the complimentary affairs in honor of the distinguished young visitor.

The celebration will be public and every Pythian is invited to bring a friend, while all young men, interested in fraternal life will be welcomed. The committee of arrangements is composed of the following from the several Wilmington lodges:

Stonewall No. 1.—Past Grand Chancellor William F. Robertson and Messrs. J. D. Kelly and Eugene Phillyaw.

Clarendon No. 2.—Col. Walker Taylor, Deputy Grand Chancellor J. D. Nutt and Mr. J. T. King.

Germania Lodge—The regular Entertainment Committee, Mr. John Haar, chairman.

—Raleigh Post: "Mr. Gaston L. Myers, formerly of Wilmington, but for some time the representative of the Travelers here, left last night for Richmond, Va., where he will become the agency director of the Mutual Life. Mr. Myers has made a host of freinds here and they regret his departure from Raleigh."

Sorosis Sale.

The sale to be held by the North Carolina Sorosis will be on a small scale compared with the bazaars just closed as it will only occupy the space of the library rooms in the Odd Fellows' building. It will be largely a scale of fancy work and similar articles but with the usual accompaniments of ice cream, cake, candy, etc. There will be no taking of chances, and no charge for admission, and it will be well worth visiting by those who are in search of attractive articles for gifts at Christmas.

The dates are November 23rd and 24th and all persons interested in seeing the progress of library work in the city are asked to contribute to this good cause.

Sunday Morning, Nov. 12.

JUST LIKE A DEMOCRAT.

The Philadelphia Press, an able Republican paper, commenting upon the election of a Democratic State Treasurer in Pennsylvania, says:

"Treasurer-elect Berry will not only lift the lid but he will tear off the whole cover of the State Treasury and give the people a full view of all that is inside. He declares for a policy of publicity. This is right. The State Treasury, carrying $14,000,000 of the people's cash, is not a private affair. It is not to be managed in the interest of any combination of politicians, no matter what influence they may have. Depositors are not to be favored on account of the accommodations they are willing to make to campaign funds. The money is not to be used as a political or private asset. There has been too much scandal, bank looting and suicide.

"The pitifully weak assertion that the State has never lost a dollar does not meet the demands of the people. With astonishing emphasis they have declared that they propose to have a knowledge of the inside of their Treasury. It is creditable to the intelligence of the Treasurer-elect that he so fully comprehends why the great majority of the people have expressed their confidence in him. He announces that he will take them into his confidence, and that they shall know in every detail how their Treasury is concluded. Such publicity is needed. The management of the Treasury is the people's business, and those who manage it are the servants of the people and should render a public account of all their acts. Treasurer-elect Berry is on the right track. Tear off the cover."

It is so much like a Democrat to recognize that he is merely the people's servant and that it is their business and not his that he is to look after. That Democratic State Treasurer talks like he is the genuine article and when Republican ridden Pennsylvania gets a taste of good, sound Democratic administration of their finances, they will want a governor about the size of Berry and another one of "the faithful" to take his place as keeper of the money boxes.

THE WEEKLY TAR HEEL.

The Star has received the initial number of "The Weekly Tar Heel," the new Republican paper which Congressman Spencer Black burn and his associates have been promoting and promising for the past nine months. It is a sixteen page publication in magazine form, printed on book paper, and is quite attractive typographically. Greensboro is its place of publication but the name of the editor does not appear. The salutatory makes this, among other announcements:

"The Weekly Tar Heel is here. It is here in response to a demand long felt, widespread and urgent. This demand comes not alone from the rank and file of the Republican party of North Carolina, but it comes also from those who are decent enough to be tolerant, and brave enough to be independent. * * * In politics, The Weekly Tar Heel is a Republican of the Roosevelt type. It accepts his courageous and superb leadership."

Of course, there is a great deal more of the salutatory, and moreover the editorial department is both full, vigorous and sprightly, indicating that a writer of ability is at the helm. The new paper runs more than two columns of pithy paragraphs and some of them indicate that at least one faction of the Republican party in North Carolina is opposed to the assumption that State Republican Chairman Rollins and Marion Butler are to run the party in this State. "The Tar Heel wears no collar," says one paragraph. "Is public office a family trust?" is another, and again another is "If you want public office be a-kin to somebody." These are references to the statements that Chairman Rollins and so many of his kin people are on the official payroll in North Carolina, and so it will be noted that the new paper comes into the field with its fighting clothes on.

The Tar Heel is well edited and is really a meritorious publication as to its journalistic features.

MONUMENT FOR LUMBERTON.

The Star is pleased to note that the Fayetteville Observer of Friday says:

"Mr. A. W. McLean, of Lumberton, one of Robeson county's foremost lawyers and a young man of splendid ability, has written to Mr. M. G. McKenzie, chairman of the committee of the Confederate Veterans' Association of Robeson, advocating the erection of a monument at Lumberton, the county seat to Robeson county's dead heroes of the Civil War, and proposes that the monument cost not less than twenty-five hundred dollars. He starts the fund with a subscription of two hundred dollars. He said the idea came to him while on a recent visit to various parts of the country, especially the North, where he found everywhere imposing monuments. Mr McLean's proposal should meet with a prompt response, and his own patriotic action is to be greatly commended."

We join in the commendation of this movement for a monument at Lumberton. No county in North Carolina furnished truer, braver or better soldiers than Robeson and their self-sacrifice, heroism and patriotism deserves a memorial that future generations can look upon. The record of Robeson's soldiers is a matter for county pride, and the spirit which prompts the erection of a shaft to their memory shows that the present generation inherits and illustrates the sturdy manhood of those whose valorous deeds they seek to perpetuate.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Perhaps the Governor doesn't feel much like it, but he ought to get out his Thanksgiving proclamation just the same.—Philadelphia Press (Rep.)

—It will be just like some mean cuss to explain the result in Ohio by reminding us that Secretary Shaw made several speeches for the Republican ticket in that State.—Washington Post.

—"The referendum soon to occur in Norway will be a novelty in the way of elections. Never before has such an issue been presented in such a manner. The people, under a system of universal manhood suffrage, will vote as to which they prefer—a republic or a constitutional monarchy—New York Globe:

—Do not forget that no candidate of any party in Pennsylvania or New York advocated private ownership of municipal franchises. Every one stood for city ownership—some at once, some by degrees, some now, some later. But all stood for that correct principal that is going to prevail in every city where the people are not governed in the interest of the pocket books of private individuals.—Raleigh News and Observer.

—The different papers over the State are commending the papers of Maryland for getting regular advertising rates for political matter submitted to them. The way those papers get paid for this stuff is by charging for it, and the papers in North Carolina would have heavier pockets if they would do the same thing. Instead of this they tear their shirts for the party and different candiates and when these same candidates come into their own, they don't remember the paper that "tore itself" for them, but when they have anything that they could throw the papers, ignore them altogether. We want to go on record as one in favor of the Maryland plan.—Statesville (N. C.) Mascot.

TWINKLINGS.

"Well, Tommy, are you very good to your little sister?" asked the friend of the family. "Sure," replied Tommy; "I eat all the candy, 'cause it makes her sick."—Philadelphia Record —"Your new house is nearly completed, you say? I thought the plans didn't suit you at all." "They didn't, but my wife and the architect insisted they were all right."—Philadelphia Press.

—"Bessie, why are you and Willie forever quarreling?" said the mother of the two, in a reprimanding voice. 'Why, mamma, it isn't my fault," exclaimed 5-year-old Bessie, 'Willie always wants his own way."—Detroit Free Press.

—"Have you asked yourself where that candidate got his money?" 'Deed, boss," answered Mr. James Colliflower, "I hadn't got da fur along. I been busy wonderin' wha he gwine to do wif it in dis election."—Washington Star.

—"Gentlemen of the jury," queried the clerk of the court, "have you fully agreed to disagree?" "We have," answered the forman. "The lawyers have bungled the case up so that we don't know any more about it than they do!"—Chicago Journal.

—"Don't you think you ought to give the people an explanation of your attitude on the trusts?" "No," answered Senator Sorghum. "If I give an explanation that is satisfactory to the people what kind of an explanation am I going to give the trusts?"—Washington Star.

FROM BIRTH TO OLD AGE

Life is a constant fight against the dangers of disease, and he holds his own the best who keeps his body and its functions in the best working trim.

There are times in every life when Nature gratefully accepts a little aid. She does not want a whipping up for that is inevitably followed by depressing reaction.

In most cases a tonic and alterative properly compounded will afford the required help by promoting digestion, assimilation and reconstruction of tissue and reducing waste of vital nerve forces.

It must not be an alcoholic stimulant—just a vegetable tonic. Meeting these needs and conditions Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been in successful use these forty years and has accumulated a record of cures unequaled in the history of medicine. It is composed of non-alcoholic, glyceric extracts of Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Bloodroot and Mandrake root, and by special processes perfected by Dr. Pierce, in his own laboratory, so combined in the most exact proportions, and their medicinal properties preserved without the use of alcohol as to render it a safe and effective remedy for use in the family without consulting a doctor. Young or old can take it freely as needed, and now that its composition is published, there is no ground for prejudice against it as a patent medicine or secret medicine. It is neither.

Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Druggists sell them, and nothing is "just as good."

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps.

TIRED FEELING?

Read This "I have found Wine of Cardui such a benefit to me," writes Mrs. Leota Forte of Toledo, Ill., "that I shall continue to use it. I cannot praise your medicine enough."

A tired or languid feeling is a sign of weak vitality, and this, in women, is nearly always due to the debilitating influence of female trouble. When your menstrual functions are out of order, they call upon the nerves for help, and your nerves answer the call by throwing into the weak parts all the blood force and vitality they can possibly get together. Of course this weakens the rest of your body. Of course you feel tired and languid. Of course you need outside help to keep up your strength and help to make you well. This necessary help you can get by taking Cardui, the pure, old, reliable, scientific remedy for sick women. For tiredness, weakness, irregular menstruation, monthly pains, dragging sensations, debilitating discharge, and all female complaints, a sure cure is

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, Nov. 11.—The cotton market opened steady at a decline of 2 to 5 points, which was considered better than due on the easy cables, and clearing weather in the western belt. There was considerable pressure against the market, however, and prices following the call sold off to a decline of about 11 to 14 points on the active months in spite of predictions for a freeze in the northwest, following recent rains. Trading was fairly active and demand was sufficient to absorb offerings at the decline and cause a rally of 3 to 4 points from the lowest in the middle of the morning.

Advice to Merchants and Farmers

Do you know when you buy any grade of Guano? It's simply an adulteration, a small per cent of which is blood and bone, which is the superior ingredient, but when you purchase FISH SCRAP, you get nothing but pure FLESH, BLOOD & BONE. The above assertion we guarantee and can prove. Therefore FISH SCRAP has no equal as a Fertilizer. We are Sole Agents for the Ocean Fisheries Co., who manufacture the finest article of FISH SCRAP known. Prices cheerfully given on application.

The magnificent memorial organ which was given in loving memory of the late Preston L. Bridgers, adds much to the furnishing of St. James, as well as to the impressiveness of the church services. Mr. Edward H. Munson, choir master and organist, than whom there is none better in the State, handles the handsome instrument with much skill and effectiveness, bringing out each note with harmonious precision which only a master hand can do.

* * * * *

Friends will be pleased to know that Mr. Niel D. Emerson is located in this city, at least, temporarily. The most welcome and gratifying information of the week is the encouraging and hopeful manner in which Dr. Richard J. Price writes of his improvement. As is well remembered, Dr. Price's health gave away while he was a surgeon in the United States Army, on duty in the Philippines. He is now in Asheville, and feel so much encouraged over his improved health, that he contemplates a tramp through the mountains in the near future. There are many here, whose prayers for his complete restoration ascend to the Great Physician. Dr. Price is exceedingly popular, and his friends will be delighted to welcome him home.

TESTS PATIENCE

The Most Patient Wilmington Citizen Must Show Annoyance at Times.

Nothing spoils a good disposition.
Nothing taxes a man's patience,
Like any itchiness of the skin.
Itching Piles almost drive you crazy.
All day it makes you miserable,
All night it keeps you awake.
Itch! Itch! Itch! with no relief.
Just the same with Eczema.
Can hardly keep from scratching it.
You would do so, but you know it makes it worse.
Such miseries are daily decreasing.
People are learning they can be cured.
Learning the merit of Doan's Ointment.
Plenty of proof that Doan's Ointment will cure Piles, Eczema or any Itchiness of the skin.
Read the testimony of a Wilmington citizen.

H. Cronenberg, Photographer, of 119 1-2 Market street, says: "I used Doan's Ointment and it did its work promptly and permanently. I had a rash all over me, and no knows how I suffered. It was like being in the infernal region and I could get no relief. I did not dare scratch because that made it worse. I tried everything but only to be disappointed. Some one told me about Doan's Ointment and I procured a box at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. I went home and applied some of the ointment, and I can say brought the first relief I had had for a long time. I can only add that it is a preparation of great merit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Man's Unreasonableness

is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female trouble, "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, druggist, price 50c. **

"I Thank The Lord!"

cried Hannah Piant, of Little Rock, Ark., "for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for 5 years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed at R. R. Bellamy's drug store; 25 cents. **

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Manuell, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '99, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 30 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Coal--Wood--Coal

A Convenient Way to Buy Coal.

We have a constantly increasing number of customers who purchase their Winter's coal supply as they are able. When they have the price they buy a ton, pay for it, and have it sent home. A little later on they get another ton and so on until their full supply is all in. Doing it this way the weight of the whole purchase is not felt. At the same time they have their fuel supply laid in and paid for ready for use before the Winter comes.

If you cannot order your whole supply at once try this plan. We are as pleased at receiving an order for one ton and give the same attention as one for a large quantity.

CUNLIFFE TO PENITENTIARY.

Got Six Years for Stealing $101,000 From Express Company.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 11.—Edward G. Cunliffe, the express company clerk, who on October 9th stole $101,000 from the Adams Express Company agency in this city, and whose flight and capture ten days later, attracted the attention of the entire country, was sentenced by Judge James R. MacFarlane in criminal court today to two terms of three years each in the Western Penitentiary, and two fines of $100 each and all costs of the prosecution in two charges of larceny, making a total term of six years imprisonment. These terms of imprisonment are the limit under the laws covering stealing from employers, although the maximum fine on each count is $500.

Cunliffe looked better than when he last appeared before the court to enter a plea of guilty. He was cool and collected and walked with a steady step. When the prisoner was asked if he had anything to say, Cunliffe replied: "All I can ask is a little clemency for the sake of my poor family and folks. I was never before in any trouble and have always been honest and upright with a good disposition, and used my best efforts in the interest of the company. I don't know what impelled me to make the money. Five minutes after it was in my possession I would gladly have put it back. I have always lived an upright life and do not know what possessed me to take the money."

When asked by the judge as to the whereabouts of the rest of the money, he said: "I know no more about it than any other man in the court."

MORNING POST SUSPENDS.

Plant Taken Over By Raleigh Times —Football Game.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 11.—The Morning Post, of this city, will announce to-morrow that it suspends with that issue, the entire plant having been leased by the Evening Times, including the good will, and subscription books. The Times will appear Monday afternoon in enlarged form with the full afternoon Associated Press. W. G. Briggs, for several years on the local department of the Post will become city editor of the Times. The Post was established eight years ago.

In the presence of five thousand people this afternoon the University of North Carolina and the A. & M. College football teams played a game in which neither scored, being the third successive annual game in which this has been the case. The game was characterized by especially fine playing by the A. & M. Four minutes before the time was up Lykes, of the A. & M., tried to place a kick which missed scoring only two yards. Only hard luck prevented the A. & M. from winning by twelve points, being ahead one time on the six yard line and again losing ten yards by holding at a time when a touch down was inevitable. In view of the approaching Carolina-Virginia game a statement is made that Gardner, Whitaker, Meadows and Singletary were not in the game to-day.

OLD NICK WILLIAMS' TRIAL.

To Quit Reading Out Names of Liquor Consignees.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 11.—An agreement made by the attorneys in the case of the United States against the Old Nick Williams Distilling Company yesterday in the Federal court will shorten the trial by at least four or five days. Instead of requiring the witness for the prosecution, railroad agent Z. H. Cotner, of Clemmons, to read the name of the consignee, place of shipment and other information, he is now asked to read only the character of the package and the weight. Agent Cotner was on the stand during the morning and a part of the afternoon session. Considerable progress was made by the witness in the reading of the records yesterday, and it is thought he can finish on Monday or Tuesday.

SOUTH CAROLINA SENSATION.

Reward of $1,500 for Missing Books of Union Mills.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 11.—The directors of the reorganized Union and Buffalo cotton mills at Union, S. C., held a long session today. Those present included William Winchester, of Baltimore; H. C. Fleitman, of New York; T. H. Rennie, Graniteville, S. C.; E. W. Robertson, Columbia; Emslie Nicholson, and T. C. Duncan, Union. Somewhat of a sensation was caused by the action of the directors in offering a reward of $1,500 for the return of several important books belonging to the Union Cotton Mills, with evidence to convict the party who made away with them. One thousand will be paid merely for the return of the books. It was announced at the close of the meeting that all the mills' future contracts for cotton had been closed out. These contracts were for 88,000 bales bought by former President Duncan in July for the Union mills, or more than seven years supply, the average price being 11 1-2 cents. The price received for the contracts was from 9.60 to 9.96.

CANNON BALL TRAIN WRECKED.

Firemen Killed, and Only Two of 800 Passengers Injured.

Aledo, Texas, Nov. 11.—Eastbound Texas and Pacific passenger train No. 6, known as the cannonball, was wrecked about two miles west of Iona switch today, killing one man and injuring eight others.

Luther Wilson, of Fort Worth, fireman of the front engine was buried under the wreck. The train was a double header and the two engines turned over just as they struck a curve at the top of the heavy grade up which they were pulling a train of fifteen coaches heavily loaded with passengers. Both engines, the mail and baggage cars, the express car and the chair car left the rails. Only two passengers out of 800 received injuries.

BOSTON POLICE RAID CRIMINALS

Sensational Descent on Five Offices of Doctors Doing Criminal Practice

GHOULS HAD SLUNK AWAY

Fifteen Year Old Girl Victim Aided Detectives—Four Indictments in Case of Chorus Girl—Shocking Revelations.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 11.—Twenty detectives, headed by Police Captains Joseph Dugan and Lawrence, made a sensational descent this afternoon upon five offices on Tremont street, where it is alleged, illegal operations have been performed on an extensive scale, and although the raids did not result in any arrests, the police found considerable material which they think will aid them in the future. In each place a photograph was taken of the rooms and of the instruments found. Hundreds of people blocked traffic on Tremont street during the raids, and for hours afterwards the impression was general that another girl had met death in one of the hospitals and that the police had caught the criminals.

The action of the police today was the result of disclosures which have come to light recently in connection with the death of Susanna Geary, the victim of the suit case tragedy, whose death followed an illegal operation alleged to have been performed in the office of Mrs. Dr. Jane Bishop, and the more recent operation performed on Iola Reed, a 15 year old girl, of West Newfield, Maine.

Although only five places were entered by the police today, the work will be continued next week, the authorities having information in their possession indicating that the business is being conducted on such a large scale that it has become alarming. Their information also indicates that this city has become the headquarters for these illegal practitioners who bring their patients here from all parts of the country.

No one was found at the offices of Mrs. Dr. Ames and Dr. J. W. Emmons at 165 and 170 Tremont street respectively. The Bishop office was also deserted. At Dr. Butler's office Dr. Lewis was found. He is the husband of Annie Brown, who was sentenced to five years imprisonment recently for performing a criminal operation at the Bishop office. Three young women were found at the William's office. They explained their presence by the statement that they were waiting for the doctor.

The establishment which held most interest for the raiders was that of Mrs. Jane Bishop at 178 Tremont street. It was here that a greater part of the evidence was gathered and and it was here also that the officers learned the method of disguise adopted by the persons performing operations. There are five rooms connected with the place. The parlor is elaborately furnished in blue and gold. The door of the safe was open and papers were strewn about the floor, indicating the hasty departure of the persons connected with the institution after Lewis Crawford and William Howard made a confession to the police that Susanna Geary had been a patient there. Books found in a desk showed that an enormous business has been done daily. There are three operating rooms in the place all cleverly arranged with the idea of hiding the operator from the patient. Over each operating chair hangs a curtain in which there is an opening only sufficiently large to permit the "doctor" to do his work. An officer found additional evidence of the extreme care taken to conceal the identity of the operator. He found a large mask having long black hair which covered the face from the top of the head to the neck. Black pieces veiling were used to hide the eyes.

While the raids were in progress, Captain Dugan accompanied by Iola Reed and Deputy Sheriff Authorn, of Sanford, Maine, visited several offices in an effect to have the girl identify the place where she went to submit to an operation. When she was taken into the Bishop offices, the young girl unhesitatingly stated that it was here that she was treated.

She coudd not describe the location of the house where she was taken after the operation and the police have practically abandoned hope of finding it.

The Bishop establishment is said to be the largest of its kind in New England and the headquarters of a number of branch offices many of which are out of town. It is the belief of the police that there is a syndicate in operation here, and that several of the offices are used for the patients at various times in order to confuse them as to the location of the office where the operation is done.

Indictment In Chorus Girl Case.

Boston, Nov. 11.—The Suffolk county grand jury today reported indictments against four persons whose names have been connected with the death of Susanna Geary, the Winthorp suit case victim. Those indicted were Mrs. Mary S. Dean, of Boston, as principal and Dr. Percy D. McLeod, of Boston, and Louis W. Crawford and William E. Howard, alias Hunt at present in custody of the police of New York city, as accessories. No indictment was found against Morris Nathan the suitor of the Geary girl.

The indictment charges Mrs. Dean with having performed the criminal operation alleged to have caused the death of Susanna Geary.

Dr. McLeod being the only defendant at hand, was arraigned today and his bail, which previously had been $20,000 was increased to $25,000.

Although Nathan was not indicted, he was not released. He is being held by the local police in default of $5,000 bail on the charge made against him on his arrival from Pittsburg.

CADET MERIWETHER TO BE COURT MARTIALED

Will Be Charged With Manslaughter for Fatally Beating Midshipman Branch.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Secretary Bonaparte to-day orderel a court martial for the trial of Milshipman Minor Meriwether, Jr., of the third-class, at the Annapolis Naval Academy, in connection with the death of Midshipman Branch which followed a fistic encounter between the two naval students. Secretary Bonaparte issued a statement giving the facts of the case as reported by the board of investigation as follows:

"Some personal hostility had existed for some time past between Midshipman Branch and Meriwether. Branch, in the discharge of his duty, inspected the quarters of Meriwether, and is alleged to have discovered there a suit of civilian clothes. Possession of clothing of this character by midshipmen is a serious offense under the regulations of the academy. No report of the alleged discovery, however, appears to have been made by Branch. Meriwether subsequently visited the quarters of Branch and became engaged in an angry altercation with the latter on the subject of his inspection of Meriwether's quarters. In the course of this dispute, Meriwether is alleged to have insulted Branch, applying to him the epithets 'sneak' and 'coward.' After consultation with other midshipmen, Branch challenged Meriwether to a fist fight and the latter accepted the challenge. The fight took place on the evening of Sunday, November 5th. It lasted between one hour and an hour and a quarter, and was finally declared to be a draw by the referee, having been interrupted by reason of the reported approach of one of the officers. At the conclusion of the encounter, Meriwether appeared to be the more seriously injured of the two combatants and went to the hospital, which Branch, whose injuries seemed at first sight superficial, went to his quarters. Branch received severe injuries to the brain as the result either of blows on the head inflicted during the conflict or of falls, of which several are said to have occurred, while it was in progress.

"The department sees no necessity for the appointment of a court of inquiry in the premises. The facts developed by the several reports submitted to it, above stated, are sufficient to determine its action in the premises. It is clear that these reports impute to Meriwether, offenses of such gravity that his trial by court martial is indispensable."

Secretary Bonaparte is his statement quotes from the statutes and naval degulations a paragraph defining manslaughter and disorderly conduct, and says that in view of the statutes and regulations, a court martial is ordered. The statement asks a suspension of judgment as to Meriwether's conduct until his side of the case is heard.

All the papers have been referred ed to the Judge Advocate General of the Navy for the preparation of the charges upon which the young man will be tried.

SECRETARY WILSON SCORED.

Criticised for Reporting Cotton Condition After Growing Ended.

New York, Nov. 11.—Richard Cheatham, of Atlanta, secretary of the Southern Cotton Association, is quoted by the Herald as having last night severely criticised the report of the cotton crop issued yesterday from Washington, in which the condition of the crop on November 1 was stated to be 68.8. Mr. Cheatham who is stopping in this city, said among other things:

"The most absurd piece of spite work ever attempted was the issuing of the crop report Friday by Mr. Wilson, the Secretary of Agriculture. In this report he announces the 'condition' at 68.8. Now there is no sane man who ever saw a cotton stalk who does not know that on November 1 and November 10 it is not only far beyond the fruiting or bearing stage, but in nearly every case is entirely void of foliage of every kind. It has passed far beyond the increasing stage. Its condition, so far as conditions are recognized in reports, is the same as on October 1 previously. For Secretary Wilson to make a report on 'Condition' of November 1 is to insist in the operations of the bear speculators to hammer down the price of cotton."

WARM WIRELETS

At Wytheville, Va., yesterday the jury in the case of Charles W. Gose, charged with the murder of Frederick Borchers, returned a verdict of not guilty. Gose is the agent of the Norfolk & Western Railway Company at Cripple Creek, Va., and Borchers was a prospector from Philadelphia.

At Cartersville, Ga., Friday night, seven prisoners escaped irom the Bartow county jail with the aid of a crow bar. Their names are Eli Johnson, George White, Albert Nutty, Jim Hill, Chess Reed, Ernest Dickinson and Dan Davis. All are negroes except Nutty. All were charged with misdemeanors except Eli Johnson, who was charged with wife murder at Adairsville recently. Dickinson is the only one who has been captured.

The Inter-State Commerce Commission yesterday decided that the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company has not violated the statute regulating railway rates, in refusing a differential on round bale shipments of cotton in car load lots. Commissioner Prouty dissented from the decision. The case was brought against the road by the Planters' Compress Company. It was claimed that 45,000 pounds of cotton would be shipped in a car when in round bales, while 25,000 pounds constituted a car load in ordinary bales.

HEARST CONTEST IN NEW YORK

Cases of Illegal Acts in Election Warrant Appointment of Legal Prosecutors

SENSATIONAL REVELATIONS

Arrangements Being Made to Arrest Sixty-Five Tammany Bosses—Both Ignorance and Fraud in Conducting Election.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New York, Nov. 11.—Attorney General Mayer announced to-night that cases of illegal acts in the recent election had been reported to both his and Superintendent Morgan's office in such manner that he had appointed Jay S. Jones, of Brooklyn, and James S. Lehmaier, of New York, as special attorney generals to assist the regular staff in the investigation and prosecution of the election cases reported. Neither the Attorney General nor Superintendent Morgan would discuss the situation to-night. It was learned, however, that as a result of the investigation, evidence has been procured which would be taken to the grand jury next week.

The investigation so far has resulted in revelations of the most sensational character as to the ignorance and incompetency of the election inspectors. It is the opinion of all the State officials that the irregularities developed were not so much of fraud as of pure and simple ignorance.

It was learned to-day that the ballot box found in the barber shop in the Twenty-first Assembly district was only for mutilated ballots, and the reports of the canvass show that ten defective ballots were recorded. the same number that was found in the box. Another similar box was found to-day at a polling place on West Thirty-eighth street.

Managers of the W. R. Hearst contest claim that the returns from the election district captains of the Municipal Ownership league, which are coming in, show in every instance a gain for Mr. Hearst in the figures of the captain's tally sheets over the figures reported by the district election boards poll clerks. These figures were carefully gathered and Classified, with the object of using them as evidence in the proceedings to contest the vote.

It was expected to-day that one of the Tammany district leaders would be arrested within a short time on charges of violating the election law. After the grand jury endorses the indictments which have been drawn, charging assaults at the polls on Monday, other arrests are expected. Mr. Hearst's counsel were securing large numbers of affidavits to-day and asserted that within a few days they would be prepared to secure the arrest of sixty men for various violations of the election law.

A Jerome watcher to-day made affidavit to the law committee of the Jerome nominators that despite his protests both Democratic and other Republican election inspectors had refused to exclude men from voting on other names than their own, and that one Tammany inspector had ignored his protests against defective Tammany ballots in more than thirty cases in one election district in the Sixth Assembly District.

(Smithfield Herald.)

Mr. Henderson Cole took his final leave of our town for Wilmington, his new home, last Sunday. We regret to lose Mr. Cole from our midst. For several years he has been a citizen of Smithfield, during which time he has ranked as one of our leading business men. He has been identified with many of the town's enterprises, leading in some of them.

Mr. Cole is, and has been for quite a while, secretary and treasurer of the Chamber of Commerce; secretary and treasurer of The J. H. Edgerton Co., President of the Johnston County Fair Association; an Executiveman of the North Carolina Agricultural Society; and S. W. Fellowship Lodge No. 84 A. F. & A. M.

While Mr. Cole has made a success of everything he has undertaken, he reached the climax as owner and manager of the Smithfield Furniture Company. His furniture business increased by leaps and bounds until it became one of the leading furniture houses in Eastern North Carolina. He shipped quantities of goods along the Wilmington & Weldon railroad and into Wilmington, as far south as Dillon, S. C., and as far west as Durham and Henderson. He kept himself thoroughly posted as to every feature and detail of the furniture business. He is considered a very good judge of furniture and has always been regarded by the manufacturers as one of the cleverest buyers visiting the markets.

Mr. Cole was the first president of the North Carolina Retail Furniture Dealers Asosciation, and was one of the leading spirits in its organization.

He goes to Wilmington to become Secretary and Treasurer and General Manager of the Wilmington Furniture Co. His familiarity of goods, his sagacity as a buyer, his inherent propensity to sell cheap, are bound to bring him success in his new field. He carries with him the confidence, the good will and the friendship of our people.

On account of the Virginia-Carolina football game at Norfolk November 30th, the Atlantic Coast Line will operate through sleeper from Wilmington to Norfolk, night of November 29th. The indications point to quite a large crowd being in attendance, and it would be well for those desiring Pullman Car accommodations to make their reservations as early as possible. The diagram is now open and the Pullman space is being rapidly sold. nov 12-till nov 30th.

MISERABLE LIFE TURNED TO BRIGHTNESS

Man Who Had Lost His Will Power by Drink Habit Praises Keeley Cure.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

My experience at the Keeley Institute and the cure following the treatment I received there, have been everything to me and my poor wife and children. Before I took the treatment I was a miserable wretch, good for nothing at all; I had drunk up all that I had worked for all my life; I had lost all of my will power; I could not resist anything like strong drink. Sometimes I would take a firm stand against whiskey, and would say that I was done with it; but, when that old disease would begin its gnawing, I would yield again. Often I would pray to Almighty God to deliver me, and I have cried over my habits, but I had lost my will power and could not do my part. I had got so low down that friends and relatives had forsaken me. I would stoop to almost anything in order to get whiskey. This gives you only a little idea of part of my drunken life. One day in 1893 I was out at the store and some of my former friends told me if I would go to the Keeley Institute they would give me so much to pay my way. They made up a purse and I started for the Keeley Institute. When I got there and met the kind attendants I thought they were the first friends I had seen in twenty years. They treated me kindly and I began to realize that I was somebody again. I was completely cured and when I came home my wife and children were glad to see me, knowing that they would have a husband and father once more, for I was a new man. Everything brightened up, my neighbors were glad to see me, and they would greet me kindly.

It has been nearly eleven years since I have taken a drop.

PRINCE LOUIS SEES FOOTBALL.

Carlisle Indians Beat West Point by Score of 6 to 5.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

West Point, Nov. 11.—Failure to kick a goal caused West Point to lose today to the Carlisle Indian eleven. The score was 6 to 5 in the Indians' favor and the goal which would have tied the score was missed by less than six inches. Prince Louis of Battenberg, was a spectator of the game. He watched it intently throughout, seldom taking his gaze off the play. Two entirely different types of football players were pitted against each other, the Indians using trick plays throughout the game, and the Army eleven relying on its superior physical strength to crush its way to the goal line. Each team scored once by its distinctive style of play. The Indians after long, patient waiting picked up a fumble and raced with it over West Point's goal, and then the Army players, goaded on by prospective defeat pushed their way across 100 yards of the girdiron for their score.
